Please answer the following to the best of your ability.

(Short, clear, heartfelt answers are what we are looking for here.)

1. Please list clearly the skills and abilities you have that you believe would be helpful in the work-study position you are applying for (you can circle items on your resume if you like).
2. What other skills and interests might you have that would be useful?
3. Some of your work may entail continuous and possibly strenuous physical activity at times. Do you have experience with, and feel capable of performing work of this nature now?
4. What skills/qualities/knowledge would you like to acquire or develop while in Stelle?
5. What skills/qualities/knowledge do you have that you would like to share with others?
6. In this program you will be living in a community and interacting often with others. Please explain how that experience "feels" to you? Include statements to describe your comfort working closely with others, and name any challenges that might present for you.
7. You will be in an environment where you will have opportunity for self-reflection, and you will be asked to take responsibility for your own behavior patterns. How committed are you to self-reflection, personal growth, and responsible behavior?
8. Do you have health problems, special needs, or addictions?
9. How do you see your role in creating a sustainable world culture?
10. How did you learn about MWP, CSC and Stelle?
11. List anything else that you think we should know, or you would like us to know, about you and/or your reasons for applying for this work-study opportunity?
12. Please submit your resume/work history and list three non-family references (with contact information) with this application.

You may submit this application by email to: csc@stelle.net, or by US Mail to: Center for Sustainable Community, 127 Sun St, Cabery/Stelle, IL 60919, ATTN: Peg Homeier, CSC Board Secretary, before the deadline listed for the pertinent session.

Following receipt of your resume, we may request a telephone interview with you. Please suggest a best time, day and phone number to contact you by telephone.
